Early Action Assured Hoover On Public Building, Road Bills

Senate Repubs Tell President Tariff Measure Should Pass Senate During Coming Week.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(P)—Early action on the public buildings and federal road aid measures in the senate was assured President Hoover today at a conference with senate republican leaders—Watson, of Indiana, and McNary, of Oregon.

Discussing the legislative program at a White House parley, the senate leaders informed the president that the tariff bill probably would be passed by the senate about the middle of next week. After that general legislation will move along quickly, they reported.

However, Watson and McNary said they believed it would be five or six more weeks before the tariff bill could be remanded in conference between the senate and house and finally sent to the president. Adjournment of the session before June 25 was held to be unlikely.

Hoover Silence.
The republican leaders left the White House with the impression that Mr. Hoover will keep his silence on the tariff bill until the bill comes to him.

Senator Watson has promised to give right-of-way in the senate to the Muscle Shoals legislation as soon as the tariff is out of the way. However, he believes that the emergency

IRON CASTINGS BIDS ORDERED TO STAND

Council Committee on Purchasing Declines Plea for Reopening.

Declining to reopen bids for about $2,400 worth of iron castings, the purchasing committee of council Thursday afternoon voted unanimously to stand by its decision to award the contract for furnishing the borough's needs to Withers and Brooks foundry companies of Atlanta, despite an appeal to Councilman James T. Ozburn, chairman, by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale.

Alderman Alvin Richards and Councilman James L. Wells resented Mr. Ragsdale's interference unless he was acquainted with all the facts, they told the committee.

"Mr. Ragsdale was given only a part of the facts," Mr. Wells said. "He should have advised himself before asking this committee to undo something which it did for the best interest of Atlanta."

Committee members declared acceptance of the bid of the Seaford Foundry which was represented by W. E. Dunn would have cost the city between $300 and $400 more money during the year, even if it were the low bid, because of the fact that materials would have to be stored and drayage would have to be paid for delivery of the products from the warehouse to the jobs on which the equipment would be needed.

Bids were opened for 10 new automobiles to be used by the construction department, as were bids for brick to be used in construction of an addition to the Hemphill avenue pumping station.

The following items were purchased: Two hundred and sixty benches and 100 swings for the parks department from the Xcell Manufacturing Company; about $4,000 worth of surgical supplies for Grady hospital and 160 duodenal springs for Grady.

The Pittsburgh Testing Laboratories were selected to test materials used by Atlanta for 1930 and action on a quantity of surgical supplies for Grady was deferred and the purchasing agent ordered to re-advertise for bids on them.

Central Rate Hike Appeal Is Refused

The application of the Central of Georgia Railroad to increase its fares for monthly school tickets was denied by the Georgia public service commission in executive session Thursday, it was announced by Chairman James A. Perry.

The tickets are sold in books of 44 trips to be used monthly. Mr. Perry stated, and although in many cases the costs of these books is less than 10 cents per trip, the commission could see no reason why the fares should be increased at this time.

In some instances the book of tickets sells for as little as $2.20. The commission was asked to increase this to $4.40.

The principal movement on the trip tickets is between Jonesboro and East Point and Morrow, Esmond, Vaughn and Griffin, Lafayette and Noble, Rock Springs and Chocomauga, Rock Springs and Lafayette, and Millen and Perkins.

Red Liquor Charge Brings High Bond

Owen E. Dodd, alleged purveyor of "red liquor," was placed under $3,000 bond on charges of violating the prohibition laws following a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith here Thursday. Eddie Ross was arrested at the same time but claimed that Dodd had just given him a lift and that he knew nothing of the presence of the whisky. His bond was set at $500.

LINEVILLE HOSPITAL SITE FIGHT GETS AID

Governor, Atlanta Civic Leaders To Help City Obtain Veterans' Unit.

Officials of Georgia, including Governor Hardman, and civic leaders of Atlanta have joined hands with the Lineville (Ala.) Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to obtain the location of a new $1,100,000 United States Veterans' hospital, authorization for construction of which was passed by congress about two months ago.

Mandatory provision that one of 16 new hospitals to be established by the government is to be located in Alabama was followed about 10 days ago by selection of an area in a 75-mile radius of a point two miles southeast of Jimisim, Ala. Lineville, its delegation visiting Georgians Thursday said, is the most suitable spot in this area for locating a veterans' hospital.

On A., B. and C. Railroad.

The altitude of Lineville, according to its boosters, is 1,100 feet and it enjoys highway facilities. It is located on the A., B. and C. railroad and has a bus connection with the Southern between Birmingham and Atlanta. Its all year round climate, its chamber of commerce claims, is unsurpassed in the south. It is just a few miles south of Claremont Springs, one of the best known summer and winter resorts in this section.

It was strongly emphasized by the delegation soliciting the help of Georgia in its efforts to get the hospital that the average age of World War veterans today is about 35 and that in 10 years they will be eligible under certain conditions, for admission to old soldiers' homes. Lineville offers unusual attractions for a hospital that will eventually be made a home for the veterans.

Delegation Visits Station.

In the delegation that came to Atlanta and secured promises of help in the fight to win the location of the hospital were H. B. Woodward, pastor of the Baptist church; G. M. Bynum, pastor of the Methodist church; Professor W. G. Johnston, J. Y. Johnson, merchant, and T. S.

Winn, secretary of the Lineville Chamber of Commerce.

The delegation called on Governor Hardman, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of the Atlanta city schools and a former superintendent of the Secondary State Agricultural school at Lineville; Horace Russell, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and C. A. Cobb, editor of The Southern Ruralist.

RETURN OF BLACKMER IN OIL CASE REVIVED

Supreme Court Asked To Review Authority To Compel Return.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(AP)—Attorney General Clegg today announced that he had asked the Supreme Court to review the authority of the government to compel Harry M. Blackmer, now abroad and sought as a witness, to return to this country.

Referring to proceedings which have resulted in securities valued at $100,000 belonging to Blackmer being seized by the marshal here, the petition declared "it is a matter of grave importance to the administration of justice and the trial of criminal cases that the right of the United States to compel a citizen to return to the United States and give testimony on behalf of the government in a criminal case should be promptly recognized."

Blackmer has been residing abroad for the last several years and has refused to return to the United States.

Dynamite Reveals Prime Beer Cache

Six barrels of prime beer, concealed under a pile of heavy rock that would have taken an entire morning's labor on the part of a number of husky laborers to remove, according to De Kalb county police, were discovered Thursday when the officers raided a still near Panthersville. Knowing that they could not hope to reach the beverage in the ordinary way, dynamite was employed and the entire cache blown skyward.

County Chief of Police L. W. Whitely and Officers Rowell, Smith, Terrell, and Nash comprised the raiding party. They arrested four negroes and all made bond, except Shepard Moore, who entered a plea of guilty, and was sentenced to one year on the chain gang. The negroes had planned to get the beer from the barrels by means of a siphon, asserted the officers.

Hutcheson's Power As Auditor Revoked

Appointment of Carl F. Hutcheson as auditor in certain "loan shark" cases was revoked Thursday by Judge Virgil B. Moore, of Fulton superior court, in an order signed following a hearing on an ancillary petition filed by attorneys for alleged "loan shark" victims. Judge Moore's order said: "It appearing that the auditor, Carl F. Hutcheson, is attorney of record for some of the parties litigant, the said order of authority is revoked."

The ancillary petition, filed by Attorneys J. L. R. Boyd, R. J. Reynolds, Jr., Edgar Watkins, Jr., and Cecil V. Whidden, declared that should the cases dismissed under a consent order be revived for trial, appointment of Hutcheson as auditor would be extremely prejudicial to the petitioners by reason of the fact that Hutcheson has been and is attorney for certain of the litigants.

Contract Calls for Two New Vessels Larger and Faster Than All.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(AP)—Postmaster-General Brown announced today that he had awarded to the United States Lines, Inc., of New York city, the contract for carrying mail from New York to Southampton.

The new contract calls for construction of two vessels costing not less than $800,000, which will equal if not exceed both in tonnage and speed any vessels now operating in the trans-oceanic service.

2 Dead, 2 Wounded In Divorce Wrangle

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., March 13.—(AP)—A few hours after he had been served notice of divorce proceedings, Fred Range, a farmer, today shot and killed his wife, wounded his wife's sister and her husband, threatened to kill his two children and then committed suicide.

Range, who is 40 years old, followed his wife to the home of John Dempsey, near Jonesboro, shot her to death in the kitchen. Then he went into the bedroom and, after seriously wounding Mrs. Dempsey, proceeded to the yard and shot Dempsey.

After the shooting Range walked several miles to his own home and officers found him in the attic. "Don't shoot," he pleaded, then fired a bullet from his pistol into his head.

All of the victims were brought to a Johnson City hospital.

A farm hand on Range's 70-acre place told officers that Range said he planned to kill his two boys, Alfred, 13, and John D. 7. The boys said he had threatened them upon his return home, but that they had run and hidden from him.

4 Convicted of Fake $50,000 Death Scheme

TAMPA, Fla., March 13.—(AP)—Penitentiary sentences ranging from one to three years were imposed today in federal court here on three brothers, Claude Nichols, Columbia, Tenn., attorney; J. W. Nichols, Houston, Texas, restaurant owner, and J. B. Nichols, Miami attorney, and upon Neil Sellers, of Jacksonville, in an alleged scheme to defraud an insurance company of $50,000 through a fake death.

Claude Nichols, alleged instigator of the plot, was sentenced to three years, the other two brothers to two years and the woman got one year. Evidence showed that the insurance was taken out at Lakeland in the name of William Edward Smith, that the woman went through a marriage ceremony at Waycross, Ga., to become beneficiary, some one playing the part of the insured. Four days later the Nichols brothers reported that Smith was drowned at Miami and the body lost.

The government contended that the "insured" never lived and never died. Government agents spent a year investigating the case and the trial lasted for eight days.

Melon Rail Tariff Revision Is Planned

An order requiring all Georgia railroads to show cause on April 22 why the present rates on watermelons should not be revised was issued Thursday by the Georgia public service commission.

It was pointed out by James A. Perry, chairman of the commission, that under the present schedule where a shipment of watermelons moves over two or more railroads the charges are higher than if the car had moved the same distance over one railroad.

This is illustrated, he said, by a shipper located at Sasser, on the Seaboard Air Line railroad, a joint distance of 180 miles from Atlanta, who pays $32.40 per car, while a shipper at Leesburg, on the Central of Georgia railroad, a distance of 107 miles, pays only $28 per car.

Here Are Dozen and Half Babies Out of Hundreds in Contest

Eighteen of Atlanta's youngest citizens Thursday afternoon smiled their prettiest—in most cases—while a staff photographer spent long minutes trying to keep them still enough for this photograph. He succeeded. They are a small part of the hundreds entering the Georgia Children's Aid Society better baby contest. Their headquarters are at 574 Forsyth street where the babies are being registered. Approximately 1,000 entrants are expected. Loving cups and other awards will be given the winners on the night of March 22 at the auditorium. In the center of the picture Earl Kuhl, who is aiding in arranging for the contest, is shown with two babies in his arms.

DeKalt Speakers Urge Commission Government Plan

Possibility of calling an election in DeKalb county to decide the question of whether that county shall have a one or five-commissioner form of government, loomed Thursday night following a meeting of the Twelfth Ward Improvement Club in the Masonic hall at Kirkwood.

There were eight speakers, including two candidates for county commissioner, who spoke in favor of the five-commissioner form, while there was only one speaker opposed to it. Those speaking in favor were: J. H. Yenable and W. H. Yarbrough, commission candidates; L. R. Cooley, Wyman Braswell, C. H. Talley, Dr. F. E. Clark, L. J. Cassons, and W. E. Saunders. Hub Huddleston spoke in opposition to the movement.

According to law, 20 per cent of the registered voters of the county will have to be enlisted in favor of a movement before a special election can be called to decide the matter. Thursday morning only 300 names were needed and after a Thursday night meeting 100 or more signified their favor of the five-commissioner form, leaving but 200 more names necessary.

Metropolitan To Present Eviston Musical Comedies

Estelle LaVerne, member of the "Peach Chorus," to be featured with the Eviston Players in musical comedies at the Metropolitan theater.

One of the most interesting of recent developments in local amusement circles, is the announcement made by John A. Comzy, new proprietor of the Metropolitan theater, that, beginning next Monday, the Eviston Musical Comedy Company will present abbreviated versions of popular successes of the music show stage at the popular downtown theater.

Manager Comzy, who recently purchased the Metropolitan, states that in the future the house policy will combine first class stage productions of famous musical shows in tabloid form, and first run talking pictures of the highest caliber.

The Eviston Company is well known and liked in Atlanta. Two summers ago it filled a 10-week engagement at the Capitol theater.

The interior of the Metropolitan has been entirely remodelled and the stage considerably enlarged, in order to accommodate the company of 30 performers in the Eviston organization.

Scotch Law Firm Seeks To Collect Old Miss. Bonds

ASKS CONGRESS TO ACT ON 1838 OBLIGATIONS

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(AP)—Kinnear & Falconer, solicitors, of Stonehaven, Scotland, today petitioned congress to take some action on the refusal of the state of Mississippi to redeem bonds issued in 1838.

The Scotch law firm pointed out that a judgment for the principal and interest was given against Mississippi in favor of Hexon A. Johnson in 1852 and later confirmed on appeal.

As argument that an 1838 claim should not be considered invalid Kinnear & Falconer cited the war debt. "The claims which these bonds represent are very little older than yours will be before you draw from Europe your last quota of the World War loan," the petitioners said, adding: "From its inception up to the payment of the last quota, the state of Mississippi will share in the benefits of that war loan."

Recalling that all members of congress had been petitioned on the subject in 1927, the petition said Mississippi had again continued her refusal to meet its judgment of her own higher courts.

Only yesterday a sharp debate took place in the British house of lords during which eight southern states were declared to owe nearly $380,000,000 to British owners of their bonds.

Lord Redesdale asked whether the British government would take up the matter with Washington. Lord Posenby rejoined that the federal government of the United States had nothing to do with the debts owed by the individual states.

Lord Jesse declared that the purpose of bringing up the subject "at this particular time" was in order that some important American statesmen who were now in London might read and learn something about the British viewpoint on these debts.

JOSIAH ROSE ATTENDS PARLEY ON PATRONAGE

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13. (Special).—After conferring with administration officials over pending major federal patronage appointments in Georgia, Josiah T. Rose, of Atlanta, internal collector of revenue collections and head of the recognized republican faction in the state, left Washington tonight without making known the results of the conference.

Collector Rose is understood to have met today with Chairman Claudius H. Huston, of the republican national committee, and members of the president's unofficial patronage committee on southern affairs to discuss the application for reappointment of United States Marshal Louis Crawford, of the northern district of Georgia. Reappointment of Marshal George B. McLeod, of the southern federal district, came up for consideration also, it is asserted.

Atlantic City Mayor Jailed on 14 Counts

ATLANTIC CITY, March 13.—(AP) Mayor Anthony M. Ruffo, Jr., was arrested late today on a bench warrant issued by Judge William H. Snathens and held under $28,000 bail for his appearance before Judge Snathens tomorrow to enter pleas to the 14 indictments charging violations of the penal code.

The true bills charging various violations of the penal code and having to do with his awarding of insurance and other city contracts to companies in which he was financially interested, were returned at Mays Landing today.

It was announced by Prosecutor Repetto that the trial of the indictments would be held over until the May term of court and bail would be allowed to remain pending trial.

Indictment of the mayor marked the second city official to be formally accused in the present upheaval and investigation of vice and corruption charges precipitated by the exposure of conditions. City Building Supervisor John Conway was indicted and arrested earlier today.

Louisianan Is Guilty Of Killing Officer

MOBILE, Ala., March 13.—(AP)—Clyde Beach, New Orleans pressman, was declared guilty without recommendation of mercy of the murder of Motorcycle Police Officer W. F. Murphy by a circuit court jury at 6:35 o'clock tonight. Beach was sentenced by Judge Alex Howard to die in the electric chair on April 25.

Notice of a motion for a new trial was given and a stay of execution of sentence was ordered until the judge passed upon the motion. No date was set for hearing the motion.

'Happy Days' Revue At Fox Next Week

A minstrel show that ought to make O'Brien, Fields and other prominent figures of blackface show fame gnash their teeth in a rage of jealousy will be seen by Atlantans next week when "Happy Days," Fox movie-tones picture of a hundred stars, shows at the Fox theater here.

There is practically no plot to "Happy Days." It doesn't need any to be a box office "wow." The picture starts off with a semblance of a plot, but in the time the first two reels have been run the audience will forget all about the story and just sit back and enjoy itself.

What "Happy Days" lacks in plot is more than made up by the numerous "gags" and wise-cracks which are scattered throughout the film with a lavish hand. Figures famous in Hollywood and on Broadway, Will Rogers, William Collier, Tom Patricola, Walter Catlett, Victor McLaglen, Edmund Lowe, "Whispering" Jack Smith, Ann Pennington, Charles Farrell, Jaynet Gaynor, Warner Baxter, El Brendel, J. Harold Murray, David Rollins, Frank Albertson, George MacFarlane, Richard Keene, George Olsen, James J. Corbett, Sharon Lynn, Marjorie White, and others take turns in the round of entertainment. The plot of the picture is merely an excuse for putting on the minstrel show. It seems that an old-time show boat proprietor has hit the financial rocks. All of the big-time boys and girls, who got their start on the show boat, come to the rescue and put on a show in Memphis for the benefit of their old patron and friend. And that show is something to write home about.

There were a number of flying visitors to Atlanta Thursday who quartered their planes at the S. A. T. hanger at Candler field. They were:
Lieutenant I. L. Kines, of Pensacola, flying a Hawk; J. W. Kristof, of Marion, in a Waco; H. C. Newman, of Chicago, in a J. C. Travel-Air, and Edgar Leedy, Jr., of Youngstown, Ohio.Hugh Smith, general sales manager for S. A. T. Company, of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived at Candler field Thursday in a Fairchild KR-21 from Farmingdale, Long Island, en route to Fort Worth. He is planning to visit in Atlanta for two or three days.Incidentally this ship if of a type just manufactured and never seen in this section before. The Fairchild KR-21 is powered with a 100-horsepower Kenner motor and is a combination sport and training plane. It proved to be of much interest at the field, where many inspected it."Walter," the 60-year-old negro porter at the Southern Air Transport hanger here, took his first airplane ride Thursday, but entirely against his own wishes and better judgment.
It has been his custom to sweep out the cabin planes—but only while the motor is not in motion, as he has long held a morbid fear that "those contraptions," as he calls a plane, might get warmed up and leave the ground. Thursday the negro was tricked into taking a ride. He was told to clean out a ship quickly, regardless of the spinning motor, as passengers were waiting. Pilot Frank Estill waited and when Walter was safely inside the ship took off and gave the aged darky the thrill of his life. When asked about his ride he stated emphatically that he did not look over the scenery, and that it was "too much ride" for him.Parachute-jumping will feature the next luncheon meeting of the Aero Club of Atlanta, which will be held at 12:30 o'clock in the cave of the Hotel Ansley Rathskeller Monday, March 17. A two-reel motion picture,entitled, "Happy Landings," will be shown at the meeting, featuring thrilling scenes taken from the air and including a pilot's 3,000-foot plunge into space before his parachute is opened;
an escape from a plane in a tail spin, via a parachute; novices making their first jump, and 12 airmen jumping from a huge transport ship.For the first time the actual steps and motions involved in parachute jumps are analyzed in close-up, slow-motion photography. The famed "Caterpillar Club," composed of airmen whose lives have been saved by para-chutes, plays an important part. The picture has been shown at the department of commerce at Washington and is reported to be an excellent film for entertainment as well as educational value.Lieutenant Apollo Soucek, of Washington, D. C., United States navy pilot, stopped at Candler field Thursday for a few minutes while en route from California to Washington. He stopped at the S. A. T. hanger and re-fueled his Vought Corsair plane. Lieutenant Soucek is one of the outstanding altitude fliers of the world and has broken his own American record several times.Presbyterians Map

Work in the actual accumulation of credits will soon begin. The receipt books with which candidates can obtain subscriptions and so earn the credits which will win the prizes are now on hand at the campaign headquarters of The Atlanta Constitution for distribution among entrants.

Has Strength And Energy Of 20 Years Ago

ROBERT A. STRATE

"I suffered for ten years with as bad a case of stomach trouble as any man ever had. It was impossible for me to ever enjoy a single meal without suffering. My liver was sluggish and my whole system was filled with poisons. I was terribly rundown, my skin was an unhealthy color, and I didn't seem to have any strength or energy at all. I was advised to have an operation, but my blood pressure was high and I would not agree to it.

"Five bottles of this wonderful Sargon made me feel like a new man. I have gained sixteen pounds and have as much strength and vitality as I had twenty years ago. My blood pressure is back to normal and my whole system is in a healthy condition.

"I have never found anything to equal the Sargon Soft Mass Pills. They toned up my liver and regulated me perfectly."—Robt. A. Strate, 425 West 24th Street, Oklahoma City, Okla.

The demand for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills has probably broken all world's records for the length of time they have been on the market.

Sargon may be obtained at all Jacobs' Drug Stores throughout Atlanta.—(adv.)

The 18 automobiles and 20 Atwater Kent radios to be awarded will be given to those candidates securing the greatest number of credits, as outlined in the awarding of the prizes which appear in the page campaign announcement in this issue of The Constitution. And generous cash commissions will be awarded to all active candidates who do not win one of the major awards.

The first step towards winning a prize is naturally to enter the campaign. One can enter either himself or a friend by filling out the nomination blank printed in today's campaign department of The Atlanta Constitution.

Immediately upon receipt of a nomination the campaign department will supply subscription receipt blanks and detailed information concerning the prize offer. A golden opportunity to attain immediately a credit position among the leaders is contained in the offer of 10,000 extra credits to be given on the first subscribers—each candidate turns in. This bonus credit, plus the 5,000 entry credits and the regular credits assigned to the subscription will place a candidate as a flying starter for one of the most valuable awards.

The magnitude and multitude of the awards offered, the fact that it does not cost a cent to enter or win and that only spare time is necessary, and the assurance of reward going to everyone active in the campaign, makes The Atlanta Constitution's $25,000 prize offer a really remarkable opportunity for ambitious men and women.

The start is the thing. Find the nomination blank this very minute—it will start you off with 5,000 credits. Such a big prize offer as this does not happen every day. Take advantage of it now and win one of the fine prize automobiles.

NU-GRAPE AND MAVIS MERGER COMPLETED

Directors of the NuGrape Company of America, at a meeting held in the home office here Thursday, announced the acquisition of the controlling interest in the Mavis Bottling Company of America. Mavis is a $6,000,000 concern and the consolidation makes NuGrape of America the second largest soft drink industry in the country.

Mavis owns plants in 17 cities and all but two of these, Philadelphia and New York, will become the outright property of NuGrape. In these two plants in the largest cities, Mavis will retain a 49 per cent interest. In addition to this limited sale, NuGrape will issue to Mavis 80,000 shares of its common stock now selling at $15. Only about 200,000 shares, exclusive of the projected issue, are outstanding.

Directors of both companies have now approved the merger and on March 17 it will be submitted to the stockholders of Mavis for ratification. The purchase agreement covering the various Mavis properties includes all real estate, equipment, machinery, trucks, bottles, cans, advertising matter and properties of every kind and description. The trade name Mavis is also transferred to NuGrape.

Plants other than the ones at Philadelphia are located in Bloomfield, N. J.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Scranton, Pa.; Boston, Mass.; Terra Alta, W. Va.; Lynchburg, Va.; Goldsboro, N. C.; Detroit, Mich.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; Birmingham, Ala.; New Orleans, La.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Baltimore, Md., and Atlanta.

Showers Today Are Likely, Says Local Forecast

Increasing cloudiness followed by "probable showers" this afternoon is the immediate outlook for Atlanta's weather, according to the official forecast of C. E. von Herrmann, local meteorologist. The mercury in the official thermometer is expected to seek slightly higher levels following a range from 47 to 70 Thursday. The minimum this morning is scheduled to be something over the 50 mark, while the day's maximum will practically duplicate that of Thursday.

Change in Plumbing Ordinance Is Asked

Council Monday will be asked to amend the recently enacted plumbing ordinance governing installations in the borough of Atlanta that the plumbing license will include a provision whereby gas work can be done, under a special Thursday afternoon of the ordinance committee of council.

The change in the license fee, which provides for payment of $75 annually for the plumbing and gas-fitting work and another separate license of $75 annually for steam-fitting, will be placed into effect beginning July 1. A fee charge already is in effect.

Members of the committee also voted to change the position of assistant motion picture operator and require all those now holding that title to stand an operator's examination.

Adverse action on two petitions for zoning ordinance changes which was taken by the city planning commission also were concurred in.

The papers asked that the following corners be re-zoned to permit establishment of businesses: Southeast corner of Dunner and Fifth streets and the northeast corner of Holderness street and Campbellton road.

Help for Columbia Seminary Pledged

While the campaign to "Set Columbia Seminary Free" is not scheduled to commence until Sunday, interested friends from outside of Atlanta already have begun to send in contributions, according to statement made at Presbyterian headquarters, 310 Palmer building. A recent visitor from an adjoining state asked President Gillette of the seminary, to accept a gift of $1,500.

Another gift received by Columbia seminary during the past week is an annuity gift of $5,000 from a lady who does not reside in Atlanta but who is a resident of Georgia. She has already been announced, the seminary has been offered a gift of $75,000 and another gift of $10,000 on condition the full amount of $200,000 be subscribed.

WHITEHALL WIDENING PLANS UP TO COUNCIL

Program Is Given Approval by Streets Sub-Committee.

Council Monday will be called upon to approve a plan for widening of Whitehall street, one of the most important traffic arteries in Atlanta, through co-operation of the Fulton county commissioners.

Members of a sub-committee Thursday afternoon approved the plan and will ask the streets committee of council to sanction it at a meeting of that body to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The thoroughfare will be improved from the point where it intersects with Forsyth and Windsor streets to Stewart avenue. An assessment program will be placed into operation to procure $43,428 which the borough must furnish. Fulton county commissioners have set up $80,000 for actual paving of the artery.

Under the plan, the street will be widened 10 feet on the southeastern side, street car tracks will be moved and other improvements made to permit a line of traffic on each side of the double tracks of the trolley service and the parking of automobiles along the curbs.

There will be a 50-foot roadway with 10-foot sidewalks on each side, thus furnishing an adequate artery to the southern and western sections of Atlanta.

Chairman G. Everett Millican, chairman of the committee, stated that another 14-foot widening would be necessary to permit two other lines of traffic along the street and that this would not be feasible.

Cost of the improvement is estimated at about $43,428 for the borough, which will be collected from property owners on a benefit and damage basis. This sum includes re-arranging of curbs and replacing of sidewalks.

Bishop W. A. Fountain, president of the school, presented students in a program in which the visiting bishop joined, of Kafir, Zulu, and other tribal conversation and singing.

Tennessee River Association Was 'Lobby,' Huston Admits

Chairman of G. O. P. Committee Says Object of Body Is To "Influence Congress."

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(AP)—Facing the senate lobby committee for the second day, Claudius E. Huston, chairman of the republican national committee, testified today that the Tennessee River Improvement Association could be described as a "lobby" organization.

He is a former president of the association, which has advocated the proposal of the American Cyanamid Company to lease Muscle Shoals. He said it was not a political organization.

"It's purpose was, however, to endeavor to influence congressional action," he said. Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana.

"That is correct—properly influence congressional action," Huston replied. "And its business still is to endeavor to influence congressional action," he continued.

"That is right," the witness responded. "So that it may very properly be described as a lobbying organization, may it not?" Walsh asked.

"I think the word 'lobby' is broad enough to take in this organization," Huston said.

The witness whose activities on Muscle Shoals legislation are being investigated by the committee, also testified that two men had called to see him since he became republican chairman to discuss the Alabama power and nitrate project.

He said Chester Gray, of the American Farm Bureau Federation, "spoke" to him and that he "saw" C. W. Ashcraft, of Alabama. Both had advocated the Cyanamid Company proposal. While in the midst of this questioning, the committee adjourned until tomorrow when Huston was directed to return.

At the outset of the hearing today a sharp clash took place between Chairman Caraway of the committee, a democrat, and Senator Robinson, of Indiana, the only regular republican on the committee.

Referring to a statement yesterday by Caraway that Huston had been charged with taking money and keeping it in connection with the payment of delegates' expenses to the 1934 republican national convention at Cleveland, Robinson said:

"Mr. Huston this part of the statement that you were charged with taking money and keeping it is not true, is it?"

"It is not, sir," Huston replied. Caraway attempted to question Huston about the testimony but Robinson broke in.

"Wait a minute," he said. "I don't see that there is any use going into the politics of Tennessee in a lobby investigation. The purpose of this committee is to investigate lobbying. If the lobbying activities at Muscle Shoals are to be investigated, here is the place to investigate it but this is not a democratic or a republican committee and it ought to be impartial."

Caraway explained the subject came up yesterday while he was questioning Huston about his failure to keep books for the association. He added that he would yield to Robinson's wishes.

Huston asserted that he had never had any interest in Muscle Shoals except that of a "public spirited citizen."

GAS FIRES TO COOL Have Been Burning for 66 Years.

With completion Thursday of a system of pipes which will supply the four remaining sections of Atlanta with natural gas, fires that have been burning night and day for the past 66 years on Thurmond street, just off of Marietta street, were allowed to cool. These fires will eventually be allowed to go out entirely as the natural gas is turned into the mains within the next few days.

Since 1865 the 60 retorts at the gas plant of the Atlanta Gas Light Company, each requiring more than 3,000 pounds of coal every 24 hours, and which are attended by 24 men working in three shifts, have burned without interruption. The fires will be allowed to simmer for awhile, however, until all gas adjustments have been made. A skeleton organization at the old plant will be maintained to meet any emergency occasioned by a break in the natural gas line.

First place in the interdivisional oratorical contest for employees of the Georgia Power Company, held yesterday in the committee room of the Electric building, was the national elimination contest sponsored by the National Electric Light Association, was won by Guy Harbutt, merchandise salesman of the Jonesboro district, Macon division. As a result of his victory Mr. Harbutt will represent the power company in the state contest this morning when he will speak in competition with H. G. Welch, merchandise salesman of the Bainbridge district, Georgia Power and Light Company, Valdosta, for the right to represent Georgia in the southeastern division finals to be held the middle of April in Augusta.

There were seven speakers on the program yesterday. Mr. Harbutt not only winning the company title but a cash prize of $40 in gold. Second prize of $25 went to J. C. Clark, engineering department, Atlanta; Miss Ouida Darden, Waynesboro, representing the Augusta Division; Miss Zella Reichert, Columbus Electric and Power Company, and H. A. Warren, local manager at Dallas, who represented the Rome division.

Frank H. Martin, state chairman for the N. E. L. A. contest and manager of the investment department of the Georgia Power Company, presided at the meeting, and judges were A. D. Hammond, merchandise salesman of the Graybar Electric Company, Atlanta; C. M. Kilian, executive secretary of the Athens division, National Electric Light Association, and L. F. Wynne, general claim agent of the Georgia Power Company.

Winners of the geographic division championships will compete at San Francisco in June for the national title, a trip to Europe with all expenses paid being offered the winner.

Prominent members of the Illinois State Bar Association, touring the south for a study of court practices in this section, were guests Thursday at a meeting of the Lawyers' Club of Atlanta at the Henry Grady hotel, concluding their visit to the city, and left immediately for Nashville, the last stop on their itinerary.

It. Allan Stephens, of Springfield, secretary of the state association, was the principal speaker of the occasion and gave a brief account of the objects of their trip and what they had accomplished. Hughes Roberts, president of the Lawyers' Club, presided at the gathering and, in addition to the visitors, representatives from the state supreme court, the Fulton county court, the Georgia court of appeals and the city court were present.

Included in the visiting delegates were Joel C. Fitch, assistant attorney-general of the state of Illinois; Clarence W. Heyl, first vice president of the state association; Frank L. Trutter, treasurer; Mr. Stephens; Edward T. Lee, Chicago, dean of the John Marshall law school; Oliver McCaskill, Walter J. Chapman, William A. Doos and his son, Dwight, and Edward T. Witwer.

The delegates were breakfast guests of the Georgia Bar Association and were entertained at luncheon by the state bar association. They spent Monday at Baton Rouge, La.; Tuesday at Jackson, Miss.; Wednesday at Montgomery, Ala., and will return to Chicago following their stop in Nashville today.

Logan Bleckley, clerk of the court of appeals and treasurer of the state bar association, was chairman of the local committee in charge of entertainment.

Sadah Shuchari Arrives To Give Concert Tonight

Sadah Shuchari, Rumanian-American violinist, who has received awards from three leading musical circles and has been chosen this season as soloist with the symphony orchestras of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Detroit, Nashville, Denver and Toronto. In 1924 Miss Shuchari was awarded a fellowship with Paul Kochanski by the Juilliard foundation. She has studied with Kochanski for four successive seasons.

In 1928 she won the Schubert Memorial Association national prize for violinists and has been accorded further recognition by the Namburg foundation as well as the Juilliard foundation. It is considered as a high degree of distinction to be selected for awards from any one of the three above mentioned organizations, but Miss Shuchari has been acclaimed by all three.

The daughter of Rumanian parents, she was born in Hartford, Conn., and musical critics are of the opinion that her marked talent is due to the musical qualifications of the Rumanian people combined with the freedom of expression of the American artist.

Election Frauds Charged by Miners

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.—(AP)—Charges that Illinois political berths were offered members of local unions in return for support in elections of Sub-District 9 in District 12, were made today as mine workers from the Illinois coal fields continued their tales of alleged abuses to which they say they have been subjected.

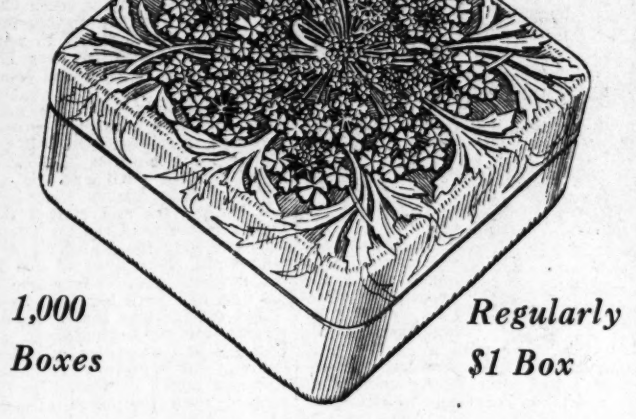

The charge was made by John Ponsetti, of Local Union 3543, at Benton, Ill., who charged further that sums of money were offered for political support. He asserted that the offers were refused.

Frank Heffler, provisional president of District 12, told the convention that "there have been no honest elections in District 12 and sub-districts for 15 years."

HOOVER MAY ATTEND VIRGINIA 'PILGRIMAGE'

Chief Executive Considers Invitation to Affair at Cape Henry.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(AP)—President Hoover today considered an invitation to attend the annual Cape Henry pilgrimage, April 26, which has been tendered him by Governor John Garland Pollard, of Virginia; Representative Lankford, republican, Virginia, and a delegation from that state.

Representative Lankford said today he was hopeful the chief executive would accept the invitation, although Mr. Hoover had not yet acted upon it. The governors of the 13 original states have been invited, together with the president, to attend the pilgrimage commemorating the landing of the first group of permanent English settlers at Cape Henry on April 28, 1607.

Included in the delegation which presented the invitation yesterday were Mrs. Francis Naylor, president of the Tidewater Assembly of Women; Mrs. M. J. Caples and Mrs. W. T. Old, of the same organization, which annually sponsors the pilgrimage; Colonel Walter Taylor, city engineer of Norfolk; W. H. Venable, S. I. Lover, C. W. Grandy and Admiral H. O. Stickney, retired, representing the city of Norfolk; Miss Tietia Serpell, president of the Association for Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, and B. D. White, representing Princess Anne county.

'BIG CO-OPERATIVE' IN GROWING FIELD

Albright-England Company Represents Movement in Atlanta.

Through an interview with William A. Albright, president of Albright-England Company, wholesale grocers, there comes to light the details of a plan of co-operative merchandising, countrywide in scope, which is solving successfully many marketing problems existing in the present-day highly competitive grocery field.

This plan is unique in that while it involves the co-operative action of approximately 90 prominent manufacturers, about 100 substantial grocery distributors operating in 24 states, and over 20,000 leading independent retail grocers—it preserves the complete independence of each factor.

"Under the operation of the plan known as the 'Plee-Zing' Merchandising Service," says Mr. Albright, "each co-operating manufacturer, distributor and retailer reaps all the economies of mass production, mass distribution and mass buying without any of the restrictions and obligations common to other co-operative movements."

"The whole idea is very simple and yet so logical it cannot fail to meet with hearty approval. It places in the hands of selected grocers, a complete line of food and grocery products packed under one brand name, but in reality the output of over 90 leading manufacturers. Each of these items is sold to the consumer on a money-back guarantee. The Plee-Zing idea is becoming tremendously popular with the public. In addition, Plee-Zing is carrying out a tremendous merchandising and advertising campaign including window displays, extensive local newspaper and billboard advertising the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers all contributing their equitable share in the advertising campaign involved in the plan."

"The entire story of Plee-Zing will be carried to the consuming public of Atlanta in a strong, forceful manner, starting at an early date."

"In our estimation this Plee-Zing plan is the biggest thing that has ever happened in the grocery field." The thousands of high-grade grocers who are co-operating in Plee-Zing are highly enthusiastic about the plan, it is reported. It enables them, they say, to buy guaranteed merchandise of the best quality at considerable savings—an economy which they in turn can pass along to the consumer. The public, they feel, will heartily support the Plee-Zing plan giving them as it does the opportunity to buy products, backed by a money-back guarantee of uniform and sustained high quality, and from a known source of supply.

George W. Simmons, president of the George W. Simmons Corporation, of St. Louis, National Plee-Zing headquarters, is responsible for this movement and is giving it his personal direction.

Mr. Simmons was formerly the executive of the Simmons Hardware Company, of St. Louis, severing that connection some years ago to become vice president of the Chase National bank. He is at present a member of the advisory board of the Chase National Bank of New York (Grand Central branch); director First National bank, St. Louis; trustee, Associated Simmons Hardware Companies; vice president and director Winchester Simmons Company; president and director Huttig Sash and Door Company, St. Louis; president and director Virginia Investment Company, St. Louis; and president or vice president and director of a number of other corporations.

Mr. Albright feels that with such capable management at the helm the public acceptance of Plee-Zing will continue to grow at even more rapid strides than during the last two years. In fact, Plee-Zing is today one of the largest co-operating movements of its kind in the country.

State Has Won Road Fight, Tate Asserts

Colonel Sam Tate, state highway board chairman, said Thursday that the state had won its point with the federal war department in the matter of requiring that title in the Lafayette extension road in Chocomauga park be vested in the state before state money can be spent upon it.

The chairman announced that he had been advised by the war department that the road, an 11-mile highway from Fort Oglethorpe to Lafayette, Ga., would be turned over to the state and improvements financed the same as any other federal aid project.

An appropriation of $193,000 was made by the legislature of 1929 to be used in matching a like amount from the federal government for paving the road. The state highway board demurred to this on the ground that the state road money may be spent only on state roads. It was contended that the road should be given to the state and paved in the manner usually applying to federal aid roads.

The board also took the position that the war department's estimate that the highway would cost $300,000 per mile was too high, and that it could be paved at a cost of $200,000 per mile, saving the state approximately $70,000 in its share of the costs.

Hi-Y Club Started At Morris Brown

Seventeen boys of the high school department of Morris Brown University met Thursday and organized the first campus Hi-Y Club. Henri O'Brian, Jr., was elected president; Arthur Moore, vice president; Bonnie R. Thompson, secretary, and W. J. Newman, treasurer. Dean Samuel H. Giles delivered a short address.

Atlanta Firm Given $800,000 Contract

Contract for erection of a United States Veterans' hospital at Lexington, Ky., at a cost of approximately $800,000, was awarded to the National Construction Company of Atlanta, Thursday, according to advices from the Washington office of the United States veterans' bureau.

At a consultation in Washington earlier in the week in which John A. McDonald, president of the corporation; Colonel A. E. Tripp and Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, participated it was decided the company could do the work satisfactorily. Construction will begin immediately.

The consultation was called after the project was originally awarded to the local concern on its bid of February 20, but the United States veterans' bureau was requested by Mr. McDonald, to permit a delay in award of the project until a thorough check had been made.

RENOVED MINISTERS COMING TO ATLANTA

London Pastor Will Be Among Speakers at Baptist Conference.

Coming directly from the sessions of the world naval limitation parley, the Rev. J. Alfred Kaye, of London, England, will reach Atlanta this evening to take a principal part in the international and interdenominational Bible conference opening Sunday at the Baptist Tabernacle, it was announced Thursday by Dr. Len G. Broughton, pastor of the Tabernacle and director of the conference. Other noted divines from Australia, Latin America and China will speak.

Dr. Broughton recalled that Mr. Kaye won fame during the World War as the "fighting parson" of the British army. The young minister had joined Dr. Broughton as an assistant at Christ church, London, England, where Dr. Broughton was pastor, before the war began. He was associated with Dr. Broughton in the Belgium relief activity in England until the pastor's health broke under the strain. Mr. Kaye then enlisted in the British army as a private, fighting his way up to rank as colonel before the war ended.

Since the war, Dr. Broughton stated, the "fighting parson" has occupied some of the most important pulpits in England, now being pastor of the great Newcourt Congregational church in London. He is coming to America especially for the Bible conference here, the first to be conducted by Dr. Broughton since he resumed the Baptist Tabernacle pulpit last year.

The Rev. Mr. Kaye will be the first speaker of the conference program, opening the series with a sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and preaching again at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. He will speak daily during the two-week sessions. Dr. John Lake, southern Baptist missionary to China and founder of the leper work in China, will speak at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, his only appearance on the conference program, and Dr. Harry Strachan, missionary to Latin America, will speak at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Dr. Lake will be a guest of his cousin, Solicitor-General John A. Boykin, during his visit here.

compare the COST of these 3 fuels—before installing new heating equipment in your home.

COAL

OIL
$15.52

GAS
$20.80

Other fuels have their place in the household . . . their functions for different purposes, but for the heating of your home through the Fall and Winter season, it is suggested that home owners, as a matter of self-protection, GET THE FACTS before they contract for equipment using any fuel which bids fair to be far more expensive and less satisfactory than coal.

COAL is more ECONOMICAL

Coal is from two to three times more economical to use than other fuels. To estimate the cost of heating your home with coal, multiply the number of tons used a season by $7; for oil, multiply the number of tons by $15.52; for gas, by $20.80.

For instance: One ton of good, average coal contains twenty-eight million heat units. The same number of heat units is contained in 194 gallons of good, average fuel oil. Also, the same number of heat units is contained in 28,000 cubic feet of natural gas. Now find the cost.

The ton of coal will cost you $7.00. 194 gallons of oil cost more than twice as much, $15.52. 28,000 cubic feet of natural gas cost nearly three times as much as coal, $20.80. These are the facts, and it doesn't require an expert mathematician to prove that the figures are accurate.

COAL is more DEPENDABLE

Coal is always available and easily accessible. You have only to telephone your coal dealer to have immediate delivery of any quantity you want. Your supply of it is not dependent on the weather or any other whim of nature . . . you can get it any time. Consequently, you will never have any furnace shut-downs from a lack of fuel if you rely on coal. It will give you efficient and uninterrupted service . . . dependable in every respect.

This is one of a series of paid advertisements by the coal merchants of Atlanta, who seek to give the public some constructive information on a matter which vitally concerns the public interest, as well as their own welfare.

The busy crowds thronging Sterchi's store daily, on account of the Great Spring Furniture Sale, makes one think that prosperity can always be counted on, providing the proper inducement is made to coax the nickels from their secret hiding places.

HE SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH PILES

Some Doctors Said Ulcers; Others Abscesses and Others Piles

A SIMPLE LITTLE REMEDY CURED IT

"After you have suffered as I did for three years and spend all I did in vain, you surely feel grateful when something comes along and heals you up and makes you well, and happy, at my age, 79 years," writes C. F. C. Stamp, who, like scores of people here, praises Colac Pile Pills to the sky.

"Some doctors called it abscesses, others ulcers and some just piles, but I was in a terrible pain with almost a steady flow of bloody fume, or sometimes it was clear red blood. Our family physician, and a couple more, did their best for me, and I had already used the remedies advertised in the papers, so you can imagine my relief when I found Colac Pile Pills were each day lessening the pain and bloody flow. It got less and less until it quit, and the bowels moved regular and comfortable again. They surely healed me up, and made me well and happy," continued Mr. Stamp, a well-known farmer of Preston, Iowa.

Seven out of ten past forty years of age are apt to suffer with some mild or serious rectal trouble. Colac Pile Pills—a couple with a swallow of water at meal times—do good to countless thousands. They are sold on positive guarantee of results or money back by leading druggists, or send The cash or stamps to Colac Chemical Co., Brentwood, Md., for full size bottle return mail.—(adv.)

DECISION IN PIPPIN CASE HIT BY GARRETT

Macon To Seek Rehearing of Charge Against Jones County Farmer.

MACON, Ga., March 13.—(AP)—Solicitor Charles H. Garrett declared today that a decision of the Georgia court of appeals which liberates E. C. Pippin, Jones county farmer, on a charge of involuntary manslaughter, is "unprecedented in English speaking jurisdiction." He said he would apply for a rehearing of the case.

If denied, he said, he would ask the supreme court of Georgia to have the records certified to that body for final decision. The decision favored Pippin on a motion to arrest judgment.

The decision as it stands releases Pippin from a service of 12 months' sentence or the payment of a $300 fine, but he still is under supersedeas bond pending the outcome of Mr. Garrett's motion.

The only point on which such a motion could be made, according to Mr. Garrett, was corrected before the jury was discharged. That point, he said, was an irregularity in the wording of the verdict. The verdict was sealed and the jury dispersed for 12 hours, before the case was called back and asked to make the corrections, he said.

Pippin was convicted in connection with the death of a negro child, said to have been run down by the farmer.

Garrett.

Three negroes, including Albert Jackson, 26, who confessed complicity in the murder only to repudiate it later, are still confined in the Bibb county jail.

Officers are continuing their investigation in Peach county, the solicitor stated.

Diphtheria Serum For Babies Urged

By Health Officials

ATHENS, Ga., March 13.—(AP)—Diphtheria virtually would disappear in a few years if every baby at the age of six months were immunized to the disease, authorities of the state board of health said today.

Protection at this age is better in every way, the officials said, because the youth of the little patients renders them less liable to serious results of shock, nervousness or fright and because there are no after effects or reactions.

"The state board of health for years has preached the gospel that every baby six months old or older should receive toxin-antitoxin," said Dr. J. W. Bowdoin, deputy state health commissioner.

The state board's annual campaign for immunization against diphtheria has begun, Dr. Bowdoin said, and parent-teacher associations and other organizations have started their plans for organizing clinics over the state.

Distribution of toxin-antitoxin this year will be through organized clinics only, the deputy commissioner added. Details concerning requirements for immunization will be supplied on application to the state board of health, Atlanta.

COLUMBUS, Ga. March 13.—Atlanta district managers of several major oil companies will appear tomorrow before the Atlanta county grand jury to hear the price inquiry into the alleged fixing of the price of gasoline in Columbus. The local grand jury heard the investigation one and one-half weeks ago. Local agents and dealers were questioned recently.

It is understood that approximately 100 oil companies and one from Brunswick have been subpoenaed to appear before the inquisitorial body. Their names have not been revealed. It is the first time in several years that citizens outside of the county have been called to appear at a grand jury investigation here.

The inquiry followed a charge in February by Judge C. Frank McLaughlin, who accompanied the grand jury, that there had been an investigation of the high and uniform price of gasoline in Columbus. The grand jury's retail price here is 24 cents per gallon.

Chain Store Problem Analyzed by Expert

Interesting Survey of Conditions in Many Stores Made by W. D. Couch, of Atlanta.

In view of the extraordinary amount of attention that is being claimed at the present time by the chain store question, an enlightening analysis of the situation here made by the well-known Atlanta merchandising expert, upon his return from a trip during which he studied conditions in many states.

While the general conditions are practically the same in every state I visited," said Mr. Couch, "and my survey extended from Virginia in the East to New Mexico in the West; and from the New Mexico northward almost to the Canadian border. About the only difference to be noted is that in some of the Western states the foreign-owned goods have been quite the highway that they have in the East; and as a consequence the independent merchant is in a much more favorable position, relatively to the Western States, than in the East and Southeast. However, it cannot be denied that the chains are rapidly gaining in the West, and that unless the tide is stemmed, the situation will be similar to that now prevailing in the East.

Reasons for Chain Strength.

"It is generally recognized that the foreign-owned chains have points of economic soundness as well as points of weakness. They are open to the criticism that they are not intimately identified with the community—they take much out of a town, and usually leave only a little rent and rather low-paid clerk hire. But they do keep their stores attractive, they keep their places clean, their stocks well assorted and well displayed; and due to their vast buying power, their elimination of delivery costs and credit losses, and their economies on every expense, they really can sell at lower prices, and thus connect —stop leaks—eliminate avoidable losses.

"Another question is asked, 'How can an old-line merchant, himself unfamiliar with such methods and without the assistance of highly trained experts be expected to put these principles into practice?' He can be busy as cheaply as the big chains? "

Co-operation Essential.

"The answer is, essential. It is self-help. But he can't do it by co-operation, he can. He can get the services of experts; he can join big co-operative buying groups of independent merchants; but he still has another advantage. He can't see his eye in his store keeping his eye on it all the time, while the chain must risk the consumer with the producer at a saving of money. This is their great weapon of offense and defense against the middleman's demand for reduction of the middleman's high charges.

"In the next place, the independent merchant himself has contributed largely to the ease with which the chains have underdone the independent establishments have been operated in most haphazard fashion. Poor sanitation, inadequate display, too lax credit policies, and large operating expense, have piled up the losses of the independent merchant, until he has met either the discontinuance of the business or the saddling of the loss on the faithful, responsible customer willing to pay the deadbeat's bills rather than withhold his trade from the home-town merchant.

everything in the hands of low-paid none-too-capable employees.

Local Store Victorious.

"In one case I was particularly impressed by the experience of a department store that was a landmark in its community. It was a store with a long record of successful operation over a period of 50 years. Into this town of 15,000 people came several chain stores, selling merchandise in many instances cheaper than the old home town store could buy its wares. The owners of the local store did not whine nor quit, they asked no special favors. They simply joined a big buying syndicate, modernized their methods, and again became the dominant store in their territory.

FLORIDA WILL GREET

for the murder of Mrs. Jack ... in a grocery holdup, Thursday ...
carried to the state supreme court ...
the defendant ...

An advance welcome to the Georgians who will leave Saturday morning for a good-will tour to Cuba was received in Atlanta Thursday in the form of greetings from Mayor John T. Alsop, Jr., of Jacksonville.

In a letter to the Atlanta Foreign Trade Club, which is sponsoring the good-will tour to the island, Mayor

Also says: "In behalf of the gateway to Florida, I extend to all of you of the gateway to the south a hearty greeting. Believing that the ties of friendship which bind Georgia and Florida mean much to the prosperity and happiness of both states, and feeling too that we were all joy out of a closer friendship and trade relations with our neighboring republic of Cuba, I send to the Atlanta Foreign Trade Club greetings and felicitations from all our citizens in Jacksonville and assure you that all of us will be pleased to do our bit toward making the friend-

Leaving Atlanta Saturday morning at 8 o'clock from the Terminal station, over the Southern railway, and stopping briefly at Macon and Valdosta to pick up passengers, the program calls for the special train to arrive in Jacksonville at 5:45 in the afternoon. The first entertainment feature of the tour will be a dinner-dance at the Carling hotel from which the entire party will go to the Jacksonville fair grounds as guests of the Chamber of Commerce, for the opening night of the Florida

The party will reach Havana Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and after four days of entertainment in the Cuban capital will begin the trek back homeward, arriving here at 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

Sentenced To Die, Negro Appeals Case

The case of Emory Van Dusen, negro, who has been sentenced to death

But when they do pull together, what a load they can swing!

Cows are like dollars. And people are like cows. And communities are the same. Five good cows taken together will give an even quantity and an even high quality of milk the year round—something one good cow can't do alone. So five good dairy farms will keep things going in a community much better than one good dairy farm, each benefitting by the good work and high qualities of the other.

Then you come to five communities, or counties—then five States—then to a widespread picture of the dairy territory covered by the operations of Southern Dairies.

This is an organization intelligently promoting the dairy product industry of the South, to the great betterment financially of every community in which it is operating. Its constant effort is to keep up an even supply and even demand an even grade of excellence and even progress, throughout its field.

It systematizes the production and sale of milk, cream and ice cream, butter, buttermilk and cottage cheese, producing a steady income for dairy farmers and dairy workers, for the plant workers and supply merchants of each community—in each case to be distributed and re-distributed among the business men and workers of the community.

It is by this hooking up of individuals, groups, communities and States that it is making the cow-power dollars pull all together—all for one and one for all.

As Told to Joe Latimer

Often I am asked what is the secret of Rich's success.

I say: INDIVIDUALITY . . . achieved by long years of constructive merchandising.

Here's the gist of the matter as it comes to me from here and there:

LEADERSHIP IN LOW PRICES—Being part and parcel of an old community, Rich's willingly shares the result of its power to buy wisely.

LEADERSHIP IN STYLE AND QUALITY—Instead of buying for the "average man and woman"—which is only another way of buying in gross for mass-minds—Rich's selects for individuals.

LEADERSHIP IN LIBERAL CREDIT—This public service Rich's finds practical because customers are individually known and honored.

LEADERSHIP IN PLEASANT ADJUSTMENTS—Not business deals so much as acts of personal good faith, these adjustments are Rich's recognition of "mine own people."

MRS. VERN L. DENNINGS
510 Johnson St., Saginaw, Michigan

"Although I am only 22 years old, I have four babies to care for. Words cannot explain what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. My mother always kept it in her house for years. She calls it 'the old reliable.' Before my first baby was born she urged me to take it because I was so terribly weak, and I gave it a good trial. After three bottles I could feel a great improvement. At one time I had to lie down four or five times a day. I still take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I need it for I feel that it gives me strength to be a good mother to my little family. I will gladly answer letters asking about it."—Mrs. Vern L. Dennings.

MRS. WILLIAM PARENT
1415 W. 62nd St., Seattle, Washington

"When my little daughter was born, we were living on a homestead way up in northern Alberta, Canada. I had four other children and I worked so hard that I suffered a nervous breakdown. The doctor's tonic didn't seem to help me and when a friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to take that instead. One day I felt good, the next day I might feel bad but I kept on with the Vegetable Compound until I felt well again. It is a wonderful medicine for it surely brought back my strength. Today I can do anything, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any woman will write to me I will tell her all I can about this medicine."—Mrs. William Parent.

MRS. DELLA HUTSELL
626 E. 1st St., Casper, Wyoming

"Three years ago I was in bed three months with a nervous breakdown. For years I suffered, having to lie down frequently and often I felt so weak I could hardly stand up. I have four children, the youngest 21, and I board two little school-girls. I try to keep my home as a mother should but I am at the age so many women dread. Since taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I feel 100% stronger. I am not so nervous and my appetite is better. My head only bothers me once in a while for which I praise your Vegetable Compound. I am always recommending it to other ladies when we get talking together."—Mrs. Della Hutsell.

For any BABY

We can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

All through babyhood, Castoria should be a mother's standby; and a wise mother does not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Castoria is readily obtained at any drugstore, and the genuine easily identified by the Chas. H. Fletcher signature that appears on every wrapper.

Famous Chalk Talk Artist

Mrs. Simeon Shaw, Former Georgian, Is Organizer of 'Children's Churches' Is Prominent Guest in Atlanta

BY RUNA ERWIN.

An eminent and interesting visitor in Atlanta is Mrs. Simeon Shaw, of Evanston, Ill., the guest of Mrs. W. H. Bradley. She is prominently identified with church work throughout the United States, and is recognized as one of the outstanding chalk-talk artists in the country. She was formerly Miss Ada Wooten, of Rome, and is connected with some of the oldest and best known families in the south. Mrs. Shaw was educated in New York city as a portrait painter, studying for many years under internationally known artists. While in New York she married the late Rev. Simeon Shaw, a Methodist minister, and they spent five years following their marriage as missionaries in Japan. While in this interesting work in Japan, Mrs. Shaw aided her husband by illustrating in attractive sketches the Biblical characters, and making the people and places about which he spoke more vivid in their minds.

Continues Work.

Upon returning to America Mrs. Shaw continued her work and she continued her art work entirely to painting for her husband. Mrs. Shaw has appeared in these interesting illustrated talks 28 times before the Y. W. C. A. of Chicago. She has appeared on programs with Dr. Christine Reiser, with college presidents of American colleges, and state normal colleges, and before various clubs all over the country. She holds the responsible office of vice president of the national and international Clara Barton Association. Clara Barton being the organizer of the American Red Cross.

Pictures in Color.

Mrs. Shaw sketches her attractive pictures on large sheets of paper about two or three feet square, and they are portrayed in the most vivid and lifelike colors. For example if she is talking of arriving in Japan she will sketch of the ocean and a large ship sailing along. As the part of the story describing the arrival in Japan is disclosed, queer shaped Japanese pagodas appear in the background, and the ship is suddenly locked amid a typical Japanese dock, which she will hastily sketch in. Then the little figures in their varied colored costumes will appear, and throughout the entire talk she hastily sketches these fascinating pictures, drawing them as quickly as she tells about them. It is as interesting for the adults as the children, and she holds the undivided attention of her audiences.

Entertains Children.

When on a visit to her son, Dr. Simeon Shaw, Jr., an Annapolis man who is a missionary in Eminence, Mo., Mrs. Shaw found in her son's parish many poor and uneducated children, who like their parents, were not affiliated with the church. She began entertaining them with the chalk talks and asked them if they would care to "play church," to which the enthusiastically agreed, and began flocking to her home every day. This was the embryo of the founding of a "children's church," and the little building where they assemble was built entirely by the children. Everything including the building is "miniature," even to the chairs, tables, piano, hymn books and Bibles, and only children are allowed to worship there, curious parents and onlookers not being admitted. There is a reading room in connection with the church where children's magazines are at their disposal. There are art rooms where the children may model in clay and paint.

Mrs. Shaw has appeared in some of the largest churches in Chicago, Detroit, New York city, Washington and various other large cities. The Washington Post says of Mrs. Shaw: "She is by far the best chalk-talk artist in America."

Mr. and Mrs. Howell To Be Dinner Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell, Jr., entertain 25 guests at the dinner-dance at the Piedmont Driving Club Saturday evening, March 15, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Bly, Jr., and only children are allowed to worship there, curious parents and onlookers not being admitted. There is a reading room in connection with the church where children's magazines are at their disposal. There are art rooms where the children may model in clay and paint.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

THE TELLTALE TAIL.
By Thornton W. Burgess.

There are no trifles you will find Unless to truth you're wholly blind.—Old Mother Nature.

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse knew how persistently Peter Rabbit, Chatterer the Red Squirrel and Sammy Jay were looking for his home. It was like a game. He was hiding and they were trying to find him. He enjoyed it. He enjoyed watching his wits against their wits. It tickled him to peep out of the little round doorway of his home and see those other little people close at hand with no suspicion at all that he was anywhere near.

He was hiding and they were trying to find him.

I doubt if anyone ever lived who was not careless at some time or other. The most careful people will sometimes forget and be careless. It always has been so and it always will be so. Carelessness has cost the lives of very many little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows, just as it has cost the lives of many human folk. It was carelessness that finally gave away Whitefoot's secret.

Sammy Jay sometimes is a very noisy fellow. Sometimes he is a very quiet fellow. He has a way of being around when you do not know he is around. It happened that late one afternoon Sammy alighted in a tree on the edge of the Green Forest, right near where Whitefoot the Wood Mouse had his home. Sammy had made no sound. He had kept that tongue of his still. Now he sat, waiting for those sharp eyes of his. He wasn't looking for anyone or anything in particular.

He was just looking for anything that might be of interest. A little below him in a bush on the edge of the Green Forest was a big, gray globe. Sammy knew it for just what it was. He didn't give it any particular attention. He could think of nothing about a wasp's nest that would be interesting to him. So he looked at it without thinking about it at all.

Suddenly Sammy leaned forward and those bright eyes of his became fixed on that nest. There was something hanging down from the lower part of it and he was sure that that something had moved, although at the time there was no wind. Sammy himself didn't move. He waited and waited, presently that thing moved again. "It's a tail!" said Sammy to himself. "May I never raise my topknot again if that isn't a tail! Now what is a tail doing there? And whose tail is it?"

Now, of course, you know whose tail it was. It was Whitefoot's tail. Whitefoot has a long, slim tail. For once he had become careless. In moving about inside that nest his tail had slipped out the little round doorway. There it was hanging down. Whitefoot didn't think anything about it. He wasn't aware that it was hanging down outside. After a bit he moved and drew his tail in.

But the telltale tail had told Sammy Jay what Sammy wanted to know. It had told him that there was someone in that big wasp's nest that was supposed to be deserted.

DANCING SPOTS BEFORE EYES

Queer Dizzy Sensation, Due To Constipation, Relieved By Black-Draught.

Jacksonville, Fla.—"When I was a little child, my father used Black-Draught in our home, and I grew up knowing what a good medicine it is," writes Mrs. J. R. Wiggins, of 16 West Twenty-fifth Street, this city.

"I have always used it when I needed something for constipation or biliousness," continues Mrs. Wiggins. "Occasionally I suffer from nervous, sick headaches. Blind spots seem to dance before my eyes and I feel dizzy."

"I find that a few doses of Black-Draught will quickly remove the cause of this trouble, which is constipation. I also find it good for gas on the stomach and spells of indigestion."

I try to keep Black-Draught in my home. After I have taken a course of Black-Draught, my general health is much better. I feel fresh and have more energy. I can recommend Black-Draught because I have found it such a good medicine for my own use."

At the first sign of constipation, take Theodor's Black-Draught. Costs only 1 cent a dose.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON.

Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, 10 points down at 14.30; receipts, 866; shipments, 1,165; stocks, 100,207.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(U.P.)—

The cotton market was less active today, with yesterday's advances followed by rather nervous and irregular fluctuations. An early decline in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables was recovered on trade buying and covering, but the market eased again, with May contracts selling off from 14.60 to 14.44 and closing at 14.41. The general market closed barely steady, net 5 points lower to 1 point higher. The opening was steady at a decline of 7 to 12 points, with the active months trading at a decline of 14 points net lower during the first few minutes under realizing or liquidation by recent buyers and some local selling on the relatively easy showing of Liverpool. This dip brought in a renewal of yesterday's buying movement, which was accompanied by reports that rather heavy business had developed in cotton goods, while the recent improvement in the market's technical position was reflected by comparatively easy offerings. Prices steadied in consequence of the more active positions, recovering their losses and selling a point or two above yesterday's closing quotation before the end of the day. The buying was less active, however, suggesting that the scattering short interest had been pretty well covered on the advance of the previous day, and after selling up from 14.74 to 14.80 for July and from 14.80 to 14.95 on October, October contract prices turned easier.

No fresh news factor was mentioned in connection with the decline, but recent buying and selling were realizing or liquidating and prices reached the lowest levels of the day during the afternoon, with July selling at 14.60 and the old October contracts at 14.75. Offerings then tapered off and the market rallied after covering. These were not fully maintained, but last week's recovery of some 10 or 15 points was recovered in the afternoon.

The day's fluctuations were attributed largely to technical adjustments, the failure of demand to broaden more importantly, and recovery from the early decline was considered a disappointment to recent buyers, which may have accounted partially for some of the early afternoon selling.

Liverpool cables said that London and Bombay selling in that market had been absorbed by continental buying and covering.

Exports today, 3,323, making 5,614,467 so far this season. Port receipts, 5,729. United States port stocks, 2,031,082.

SPOTS FLUCTUATE AT NEW ORLEANS.

AT NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—(U.P.) Cotton prices fluctuated nervously today and although considerable offering appeared, the market encountered good support on all dips and as a result final prices showed a recovery of 10 to 15 points for the day. May contracts, after dropping to 14.32, rallied to 14.40 to ease off to 14.32. There was another report of a market rally and cables today were 10 points lower. The local market opened easy in sympathy with the cables and initial transactions showed losses of 8 points.

Following a rally of a few points after the call, on execution of some overnight stock covering, the market encountered a wave of selling and probably some realizing. May dropped to 14.32 and July to 14.50, or 11 to 13 points down from the previous close.

Trade buying entered the market about the middle of the morning and prices had a good rally, active positions showing recovery of 10 to 15 points from the lows. Around noon, however, yesterday's buyers resorted on fears of bearish cotton futures figures for tomorrow and before the offerings were absorbed May had slipped to 14.23, July 14.28 and October 14.58.

In late trading down from the lows, 14.20 to 14.25, the market recovered and there was renewed trade buying and last prices showed recoveries of 15 to 16 points from the lowest.

Receipts 5,729; for week 27,389; last year 7,819,505; last week 8,672,281. Exports 3,323; for week 57,168; last year 5,485,842; last week 4,830,610. Stock on hand at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 1,222,722; last year 1,060,960. Spot sales 1,548; last year 14,380.

NEW YORK MARKET STATEMENT.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(U.P.)—Cotton market closed steady, 10 points down at 14.30; receipts, 866; shipments, 1,165; stocks, 100,207.

Oil Groups Price Advance Picks Up Momentum in Day

(Copyright, 1936, Standard Oil Co.)

The weekly federal reserve brokerage loan figures showed a rather startling gain, even in view of the amount of refinancing of the government's debt. Loans jumped $137,000, the largest gain since last September, when the so-called Hoover-Coolidge market was singing its swan song. Despite this increase, loans remain comparatively low, but many observers regard it as an indication that pools have been distributing stock to the public on a fairly large scale during the past ten days, with consequent weakening of the technical position of the market. This gain was entirely provided by the banks, which in addition made up a reduction of $51,000,000 in loans from bank sources.

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER, Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(U.P.)—Oil and gas stocks were in the lead today, with the petroleum shares, and short covering in anticipation of the lower redoubt rate announced after the oil and gas stocks had gained control of the price movement in today's stock market. Trading quieted down considerably, but was comparatively active, 3,855,580 shares changing hands.

The market was subjected to further selling pressure for a time during the afternoon, but the oil and gas shares finally turned the tide. Some irregularity persisted at the close, but the majority of shares were sold at a profit. On an average, about half of yesterday's losses were recovered. The movement in the oil group, which reached impressive proportions yesterday, was largely motivated by stock market operators for the rise, was regarded as lacking an adequate element of surprise to be an important bullish factor. The oil and gas shares, however, were largely motivated by the shorts to cover in expectation of it.

Clamoring Heard.

Oil Groups Price Advance Picks Up Momentum in Day

(Copyright, 1936, Standard Oil Co.)

The weekly federal reserve brokerage loan figures showed a rather startling gain, even in view of the amount of refinancing of the government's debt. Loans jumped $137,000, the largest gain since last September, when the so-called Hoover-Coolidge market was singing its swan song. Despite this increase, loans remain comparatively low, but many observers regard it as an indication that pools have been distributing stock to the public on a fairly large scale during the past ten days, with consequent weakening of the technical position of the market. This gain was entirely provided by the banks, which in addition made up a reduction of $51,000,000 in loans from bank sources.

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER, Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(U.P.)—Oil and gas stocks were in the lead today, with the petroleum shares, and short covering in anticipation of the lower redoubt rate announced after the oil and gas stocks had gained control of the price movement in today's stock market. Trading quieted down considerably, but was comparatively active, 3,855,580 shares changing hands.

The market was subjected to further selling pressure for a time during the afternoon, but the oil and gas shares finally turned the tide. Some irregularity persisted at the close, but the majority of shares were sold at a profit. On an average, about half of yesterday's losses were recovered. The movement in the oil group, which reached impressive proportions yesterday, was largely motivated by stock market operators for the rise, was regarded as lacking an adequate element of surprise to be an important bullish factor. The oil and gas shares, however, were largely motivated by the shorts to cover in expectation of it.

Commodity Markets Were Again Inclined Toward Lower Levels

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The love she saw there answered the question in her heart. No thought of the difference in the stations of the girl and her boy entered her mind. To her, Meriem was fit for a king. She only wanted to know how long she could have him. Throwing her arms about them both she kissed them repeatedly, exclaiming: "Now I shall really have a daughter." A few days after the marriage ceremony the ship started for the coast to take passage for England.

Those days that followed were the most wonderful of Meriem's life. She had not dreamed, even vaguely, of the marvels that civilization held in store for her. The great ocean steamblock filled her mind with new ideas. The first time she saw the ruins of the Greystoke town house quite took her breath away. Only one secret trouble tore at Meriem's heart. If only she knew that by birth she was the daughter of a king. Who and where were her own father and mother?

Four Meetings Scheduled In County Races Tonight

BY BEN COOPER.

With the administration county commission ticket on the stump at Russell High school before a large audience at East Point, College Park and Hapeville citizens Thursday night, the opposition candidates went into West End territory with a rally of their friends at the Lee Street school. The primary is set for Wednesday.

A number of meetings are scheduled for tonight. Friends of Paul S.

Etheridge, Dr. W. L. Gilbert and Walter C. Hendrix, incumbents, will rally at Mount Vernon school, Inman yards. Three meetings for tonight have been arranged by the campaign committee for Nelson T. Spratt, Alex. Whitley and Dr. Dan Griffith. These will be held at Inman school, Orchard Knob school, and Forrest Avenue school.

Charges and counter-charges continued Thursday night in the rival meetings. From the platform at Russell High school, Commissioner Etheridge repeated his emphatic denial of the opposition statement that Fulton county is headed for ruin and financial disaster, while Mr. Spratt, at Lee Street school, asserted that the county is in financial difficulties, and declared that the city of Atlanta can borrow money at a lower rate of interest than Fulton county.

Mr. Etheridge declared that Fulton county is in the forefront of development without having raised the tax rate, and said that the policy of the incumbents is one of keeping pace with the times. He said that Richard H. Edmonds, in the Manufacturers Record, pointed out that Fulton county is the most progressive and up-to-date county anywhere in the south.

Mr. Hendrix warned the citizens against listening to a campaign of vilification, and declared that the financial condition of the county is sound. In his statements on the finances of the county, he was backed up by George Longino, manager of the College Park branch of the First National bank. Other speakers at the Russell High meeting, who endorsed the candidacy of the incumbents, included County School Superintendent Jere A. Wells, Mayor J. A. Ragsdale, of East Point; Mayor E. D. Barrett, of College Park, and County Commissioner Walter B. Stewart. Hugh Couch presided at the rally.

Speakers at the Griffith, Whitley, Spratt meetings included the three candidates, Ernest Brewer and Virgil Adams. J. H. Merritt presided. At the Griffith meeting, the opposition denied the statement that Fulton county is headed for ruin and financial disaster, while Mr. Spratt, at Lee Street school, asserted that the county is in financial difficulties, and declared that the city of Atlanta can borrow money at a lower rate of interest than Fulton county.

Mr. Etheridge declared that Fulton

PRESIDENT HINDENBURG APPROVES YOUNG PLAN

Signs Agreement Despite Appeals of Some German Factions.

BERLIN, March 13.—(P)—President Von Hindenburg today set his hand and seal to the Young plan despite the urgent appeals of his one-time followers—many of them men who had fought shoulder to shoulder with him and others who had helped elect him president.

The president, who otherwise is extremely punctilious about not mixing in political situations, cast aside his reserve at this critical hour and penned a declaration in which he gave clear indication of his devotion to his duty as he saw it.

Only once before did he thus expose himself politically—when in conjunction with the unveiling of the Tannenberg monument on September 18, 1927, he told the world that he rejected the charge of Germany's war guilt.

His present declaration, in which he made an appeal to all Germans for co-operation in the common task and to reunite in one thought, "Deutschland Über Alles," was looked upon as an important document in German history and as a great force in reuniting the German people.

The signing of the Young plan laws was evidenced by the appearance of the Deutsche Zeitung with its front page draped in a deep mourning border.

Although the president signed the Young plan laws, he did not sign the law for co-operation in the common task and to reunite in one thought, "Deutschland Über Alles," was looked upon as an important document in German history and as a great force in reuniting the German people.

The signing of the Young plan laws was evidenced by the appearance of the Deutsche Zeitung with its front page draped in a deep mourning border.

American agreement was part of a series dealt with in the same law as the Polish agreement.

The president desired to study the Polish agreement carefully and hence for the present postponed signing the entire series. As the American agreement was the only one which was passed by the reichstag by acclamation, there is no doubt in political circles that he will sign it eventually.

Wife of Chief Chosen Prettiest Of Red Beauties

MIAMI, Fla., March 13.—(P)—Juanita Osceola, 19-year-old squaw of Cory Osceola, chief of Seminole tribesmen at the Mica Isle Indian village, was chosen the prettiest Indian girl at a pageant staged at the village today.

Miss Janet Eastment, of Fort Worth Texas, who was chosen "America's sweetheart" at the first annual Miami international bathing beauty pageant Thursday night, acted as judge.

Not to be outdone by their pale face sisters, Indian maidens at the village on the banks of the Miami river held their beauty pageant but gained unexpected honors when Miss Eastment consented to act as judge.

Arrayed in all the finery of native tribal costume, ten selected beauties of the Seminoles paraded before the judge's stage after which Miss Eastment made her selection. She did not know at the time that her choice was the wife of Chief Osceola.

As a novelty following the Indian pageant, Chief Osceola agreed to review a parade of contestants in the Miami pageant. In the Indian costume, he chose Miss Beatrice Lee, of Salt Lake City, who was "Miss Utah" in the pageant, as the prettiest in the parade of 20 paleface girls.

Women Fill Every Office in Village

STEPHENSON, Mich., March 13.—(P)—Persistent women, whose entry into politics in this village was marred apparently by defeat of only one of their slate of candidates were jubilant today after a recount gave them complete victory.

Mrs. Grace Sanders, who contested the office of village president against the incumbent, F. N. Beudon, apparently lost 90 to 80. In the recount 28 questionable ballots went into the discard and Mrs. Sanders was declared the victor, 77 to 74.

All other women candidates were elected.
